How William Calder's Bravery Won a Medal.

The funeral of William Calder will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 c ctock at the Twenty-first ward recting death of Mr. Calder, announced

The death of Mr. Calder, announced in The Herald yesterday, was a great shock to the vast humber of his friends and acquaintances, as he was supposed to be in perfect health. Friends flocked to the house yesterday to offer comdolences and it is expected that the function of the following of the conduction as a man of integrity and courage, and many stories illustrating these traits were related about him yesterday. One of the early incidents which brought him into prominence occurred nearly a score of years ago. This was the Smith-Snedeker shooting. At that time Mr. Calder was policeman at the old Utah Central railway station, now the Oregoni-Short Line station. Mr. Smith and Dr. Sneueker had sworn to kill each other on sight. They net on a passenger coach just as a firemen's excursion was about to start for Logan and the shooting was a firemen's excursion was about to start for Logan and the shooting had the shooting had the seat, carefully took aim, and killed Dr. Snedeker. Mr. Calder heard the first shot and ran to the scene. There was a general melee, and he plunged into the thick of it, disarming some of the pen with drawn revolvers at the risk of his life. For his prompt and brave work on this occasion, which prevented work on this occasion, which prevented

Is Senator Clark Engaged to the Female Spell-binder.

San Francisco papers are trying to estable a whether or not there is any truth in the report that Senator W. A. Clark is engaged to Hettie Rose Laube, the remale orator of the G. O. P., whom Salt Lakers had the pleasure of hearing at the Armory on one of those coid October nights last winter. The young lady has many personal charms and is necomplished. The senator is reputed to be worth considerable money and accomplished. The senator is reputed to be worth considerable money and the information comes pretty direct to one of the San Francisco papers that they are to be married.

But the report is denied by J. Poss Clark, and when Miss Laube, who hat San Diego, was told of the denial sie insisted that relatives are not always the best informed people on those subfacts, the tone of her remarks indicating that she fully believed the report true. At the same time she would not confirm it directly.

"Why do you ask as Tother?" she said. "Why don't you ask the senator
